

Xperimental Code from misig Repository

Nathan (Nat) Goodman

September 6, 2019

Code and documents from misig repository that aren't needed for posted blog posts or working papers, and that aren't likely to be used in posted material any time soon. This is basically a dusty attic for code and documents I'm not using but don't want to lose. Some of the code works and some is hopelessly broken. Sorry.

THE SOFTWARE IS A WORK IN PROGRESS. THE CODE IS ROUGH and SOFTWARE DOCUMENTATION NONEXISTENT. MUCH OF THE CODE DOESN'T WORK!! PLEASE GET IN TOUCH IF YOU NEED HELP

Comments Please!

Please post comments on Twitter or Facebook, or contact me by email natg@shore.net.

Please report bugs, other software problems, and feature requests using the GitHub Issue Tracker. I will be notified, and you'll be apprised of progress. As already noted, the software is still rough and software documentation nonexistent.
